

THE MOST FAMOUS MODERN ABSTRACTION:

FROM THE UNDERGROUND TO THE BRAND

November 17, 2023

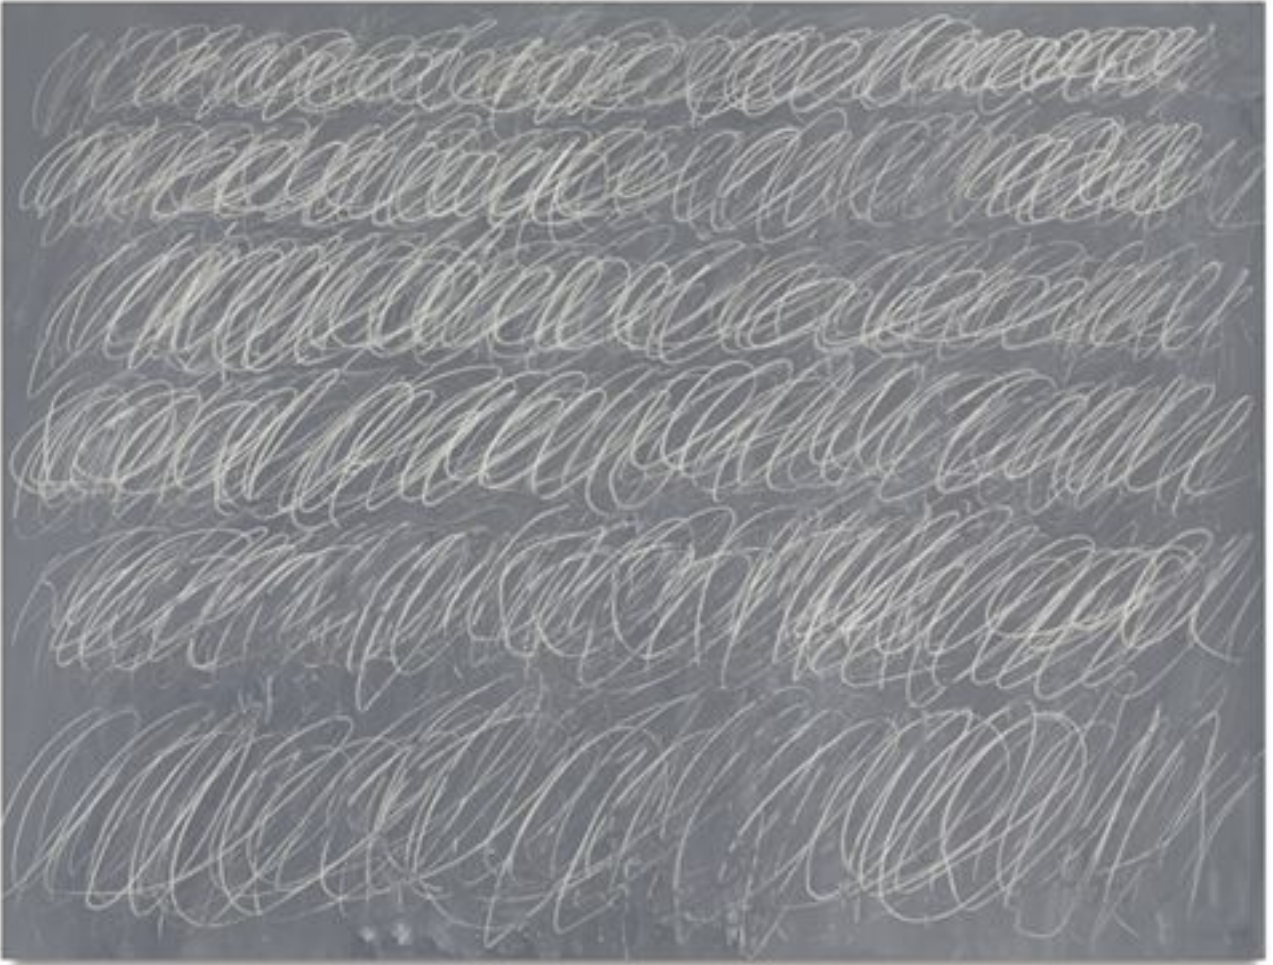

As you know, modern art is by no means an interior decoration. Modern art is often positioned as a social or philosophical expression, research, manifestation of social activism, search for new visual means and ways of communicating with the public. The countdown of the history of «Contemporary Art» is usually taken from the 1970s. In world art galleries and auction houses, innovative works of the post-war 1950-60s and later years are usually combined into one segment of the art market: post-war and contemporary art (Post War and Contemporary Art).
